"Microbreweries" started popping up in the U.K. in the 1970s. One of the first American microbreweries, Grant's Brewery Pub, opened in Yakima, WA in 1982.

Most East Coast microbreweries produce German-style lagers. Northwest microbreweries go all out for wildly adventurous bitters, stouts and porters.

elliott's rum story

Maybe it's because the islands in the distance off Elliott Bay made us long for a tropical paradise. Maybe it's the ghosts of rumrunners who ran bootleg liquor from places like Rum Island in British Columbia to the beaches of Puget Sound during Prohibition. Maybe it is just wanting to escape and be a pirate. Whatever the reason, being on the waterfront all these years we at Elliott's have a fondness for rum of all styles. From its roughneck cousins like cachaça, arrack, and charanda to refined sipping rums, we like them all — light, flavored, dark, gold, dry, over proof, spiced, and premium rums — there is no beverage that captures the spirit of the waterfront quite like rum!

Elliott's Oyster House boasts Seattle's largest collection of fine rums. Indulge in our Dark and Stormy cocktail, long for the islands with a Mango Mojito, or fasten your seatbelt for a "Rum Flight" — a delicious sampling of three of our most exclusive and complex offerings. Whatever your mood, Elliott's has a rum for you!

favorite rum cocktails

Mango Mojito | Fresh mint, mango puree and limes are mulled with sugar, shaken with white rum and a splash of soda. Served over ice. 8.

Elliott's Rum Typhoon | Malibu rum, Absolut Citron vodka, triple sec and cranberry juice shaken and served up. 9.

Dark and Stormy | A Caribbean classic made with Goslings Black Seal rum and ginger beer. 8.

Elliott's Piña Colada | Cruzan Coconut rum, pineapple juice and coconut cream, shaken and served over ice. 8.

Daiquiri | Made with Cruzan Estate Light Two Year rum, fresh lime juice, a splash of triple sec and sugar served up. 8.

Rum is the #2 most consumed spirit world wide, second only to vodka.

Rum production is thought to date back to the 1700s with Mount Gay being the first rum distillery. All rums are made from cane sugar.

Sipping rums are meant to be enjoyed "neat," similar to brandy or Scotch.

 Especially good as a sippin' rum.

Great White Wines have a natural affinity for Great Seafood. The Great White Wine list at Elliott's is presented from Elliott's tasting teams who selected the wine varietals focusing on the Pacific Northwest.

While the same grape varietal grown in different parts of the world may yield different characteristics, they will always maintain their inherent quality. Elliott's wine list marries great white wines with the best seafood in the Northwest.

The wine team at Elliott's believe that Pinot Noir and salmon make a perfect pairing.

We are lucky to have the world-famous Willamette Valley next door.

Washington State is considered one of the premier growing regions in the world and produces more than 20 million gallons of wine each year from more than 20 grape varieties, 56% red/44% white.

Elliott's serves over 25 tons of Dungeness crab a year!

Our Dungeness crab is supplied directly from local waters and is delivered live throughout the week through an exclusive arrangement with local crabbers.
